TUESDAY EVENING MAY 14, 1901.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION. Senator Daniel, State Senator Carter Glass, and Congressman H. D. Flood addressed a big rally of democrate at campbell Court House yesterday, speaking principally on the issues of the constitutional convention. Mr. Fixed discussed the convention in a general way, but clearly indicated his position on the suffrage and the cortailment of public expenses. He laid great stress upon the necessity of the white race maintaining its dominance. white race maintaining its dominancy in governmental effaits.

Mr. Glass bris fly gave his views on some of the questons before the committee.

Senator Daniel declined to commit himself on any of the great issues. He made known in general terms his de msde known in gouers terms sire to restrict the popular suffrage so as to do good and bring no evil upon the Commonwealth. How this was to be done and yet conform the action of the constitutional convention to the limitations of the federal constitution he could not exactly tell, but he felt certain that the convention in its wisdom could find some way of rectifying the great blunder of indiscriminate enfranchisement. Os the question of the public schools, Senator Daniel repeated his opposition to the division of the school fund on the color line.

A Very Remarkable Remedy. "It is with a good deal of plessure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoes Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore, and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen metars a military in minutes he left my store smilingly ir-forming me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggiet.

Our boilers, or rather our stomachs, can't be replaced, and we cannot stop the human machinery while making repairs. But when the stomach is unable to digest enough food to keep the body strong, we can use such a preparation as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.
